SOME ESSENTIAL FEATURES.

(Reuter's Service.)

GENEVA, November 13 At a plenary sitting of the Opium Chaire he various delegations described anti-optimismol ing measures in their respective territories. The Japanese delegate mentioned the great decrease in the number of smokers in Formosa. Sir Malcolm Delevingne (England) woke of conditions prevailing in Hongkong, and the Stralts Settlements. The British and French delegations announced they had prepared draft conventions on the subject of traffic opium. Mr. Campbell (India), described the system of registration and rationing in Burma: He said the possibility of extending the system depended largely on tocal coliditions. He was of opinion that prices should be regulated as the increase in the price of opinin tended to. increase smuggling. The British draft convention proposes the importation, manufacture and sale of raw and prepared opium shall be solely conducted under Government monopoly. Provisions shall be made as regards the retail sale; export shall be prohibited from territories and instruction shall be given in schools to discourage opium-smoking; the number of retail shops be limited and it shall be laid-down as an offence to engage in opium transactions outside the jurisdiction of the respective Governments. Governments shall facilitate the exchange of information tending to assist in the suppression of Illicit traffic. The convention is not intended to apply to importation for medical purposes.

It brings grateful relief to itchy inflamed places, expels poison, kills germ disease, and quickly restores skin and scalp to sweet healthy perfection.

Free From Animal Fats!

Zam-Buk is scientifically compound-ed from rare curative extracts of pure herbal origin. It contains no harsh mineral drugs; repulsive animal fats or artificial colouring matters found in ordinary dressings and ointments. As a remedy for eczema, Dhobie's itch, prickly heat, impetigo, ringworm. and other sore inflamed conditions of the skin, Zam-Buk is proved invaluable. Also soothing and swiftly effective in cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, insect bites and stings, sore feet, etc.

SOCIAL EXPERIMENTS IN MOSCOW.

Marriage can be celebrated in royed 1,000 pairs of boots ready for Moscow by filling up a half-crown form and a divorce at no more trouble and cost than is involved in obtaining a dog licence in Eng-

> This remarkable statement is made by Mr. C. J. Ketelium, the 'Daily Express' correspondent lately in Soviet Russia, who writes of strange social experiments that age being carried out there."

Under the Czarist regime marriage in Russia, as in England and elsewhere, usually involved solemn church ceremony. elaborate or not as the financial circumstances of the principals permitted. The marriage was legally binding without the necessity of "a civil declaration. Divorce was discouraged, and where it was obtained a definite limit was placed on its repetition.

Marriage is no longer a matter for a ceremony of any kind Marriage, like many things in Soviet Russia, including divorceand imprisonment-has been made easy; it has been "democratized." Religious ceremonies therefore are not now recognized, and if you wish to become man and wife in the eyes of the law you simply go along to the nearest branch office. of the Moscow Soviet registration of civil acts department and declare the fact. You will be married.

DEMOCRATIC MARRIAGE. There is not a more democratic institution in the Soviet Union than the so-called marriage commissariat. Entering a branch office in Moscow you announce to a girl of seventeen your desire to-be-married. Without troubling to put down her cigarette for a moment, she draws from a near-by pigeon-hole a little brown form bearing, in addition to the usual questions of As he was at his work at Arley name and age, others more exwife in future?-Will you live together or upart?" You may marry and divorce as many times as you wish in Soviet Russia. If there is always mutual consent in divorce there remains only the one minor obstacle—the-.. three roubles. It is only necessary either that both parties appear or that one carries a signed declaration of agreement from the other.

OBITUARY.

MR. J. HOEKVEEN.

The notice which appears in another column of the death of Mr. J. Hockween, who was well known up the West River, will be read with deep regret by his many friends in China. Since 1917, the late Mr. Hockveen served the Asiatic Petroleum Co., in Canton, Wuchow and Nanning. After Home leave in 1922, he returned to Wuchow as Manager of the A.P.C. office and remained there until combelled by ill-health to leave for Europe last Winter. His death took place in Holland last month at the early age of 31.

WORLD THEATRE.

"THE MAILMAN."

Did you over stop to think how long a trip your letter can take for the small sum of two cents-how many hands and diversified crowd will gather to see the Surreys place like-Hongkong where we all to Noah. He does this to bring out series of extremely human adventures which glorify the mailman. A chase of rum-runner by the entire Pacific Fleet, a race for life in a blinding storm and a thrilling-ly dramatic hold-up in a downtown post office are touches which add vividness to the latest Johnson's F. B. O. picture. Besides Lewis, the cast includes Johnnie Walker, Josephine Adair, David Kirkby, Taylor Graves, Martha Sleeper and others.

COLLAPSE OF THE VISITORS.

Dropped catches by Shanghai, a sterling innings by Webster, very good bowling by Bowker and Reed, ably seconded by Powell and Hargrenves, excellent team-work in the field, a considerable amount of luck when Hargreaves was batting and clever leadership, were the factors which conduced mainly to giving Hongkong a comfortable lead at the close of play in yesterday's match with Shanghai.

It would be difficult to single out any of the Hongkong team for special mention, now that Hongkong, has won the first of the triangular series of interport nintches. Ably led by H. R. B. Hancock, the cleven played as one man. There may be a few who dissented from the skipper's policy of keeping Reed and Bowker on to bowl throughout the morning but results justified the policy. To a casual observer, it seemed as if the bowlers made up their minds to take wickets just when they appeared likely to be taken off and when spectators thought that they would be replaced especially as Hongkong had several other class bowlers to fall back on,

Bowker and Reed fulfilled expectations but Shanghai's failing with the bat is difficult to account for when the galaxy of talent is considered.

Hongkong showed up to great advantage in the field, thus repaying the selection committee and the seniors for the pains they had taken in giving all candidates for interport honours, ample practice in the field.

The sensation of this morning's play was, of course, the succession of dismissals for "leg before wicket" and the rapid fall, in wickets after the first pair had made a stand; ostensibly, to wear down the

Such is the plight of thousands. They dread mealtimes, for they know that suffering will follow; they know that, diet as they will, digestive disorder is remorseless, and it has them in its grip. The pity of it is that such suffering is quite unnecessary, as any doctor can tell you. A little Bisurated Magnesia, taken in water (or a couple of the tablets swallowed) will instantly neutralise the harmful acid which gives rise to the trouble, and thus prevent all possibility of discomfort. You'll suffer no more from stomach troubles or weakness of the vital organs if you go to the nearest chemist, get a package of this sure cure, and take as directed. Remember, a dose of Bisurated Magnesia will stop the worst attack of stomach pain instantly, and you've only to take the preparation for a very little while to feel a different person altogether -healthier, happier and brighter. Suffocated At Lunch. It was stated at a Hammersmith inquest on Rudolph Neele through the glass roof of Waver-(83), a retired City man, of Campden Hill Court, North Kensington, that he suddenly collapsed lunch. A doctor said that a plece of meat which had become lodged in Mr. Neele's throat prevented him from getting breath, and that death was due to suffocation. verdict of accidental death was recorded. Friend Of "Uncle Tom."

The Quaker, Timothy Nicholson, who was closely associated in the middle of the last century with Levi Coffin, the original of "Simeon Halliday" in Uncle Tom's Cabin," in the work for liberation of the American negro slaves, has died in America, aged 95. Known as the "grand old man of American Quakerism," he was actively engaged in work till within a week of his death.

Horses Over Cliff.

Five horses, valued at £200, yoked to a tree trunk at Castle their load. The middle horse then lost its footing, and slipped over the edge of a precipice, dragging the other animals with it They fell a distance of a hundred feet and were killed.

"Mystery Scot." Details of a sensational plot to purchase British submarines and enlist British ex-officers to assist the Riffs in their war against the Spaniards in Morocco are published in the London "Star." Paris correspondent of that paper states that he has learned from "an unimpeachable source" of a plot which Abd-el-Krim, the Riff leader, has hatched in conjunction with a London and Paris syndicate. For many months, he writes, Abd-el-Krim has been financed by this syndicate, and in return, he some 2509,000 has been advanced marines were ordered through a Middle Eastern Power. Delegates of the syndicate have carried out all the negotiations from London, and they have received help from l'a mysterious Scotsman, who is at tains an interview with the Scots present staying at a West End whose marriage with an hotel.
